$1,313 Worth of Items Collected in Hygiene Drive to Support Homeless

Prevail Bank -Medford and -Owen were official collection sites for the 88.5FM The Family's Help for the Homeless Hygiene Drive this year (2025). Between them and the Medford County Market 397 items, valued at $1,313, were collected and divided between Steppings Stones, (Taylor County's domestic abuse & sexual assault advocacy agency) and The Taylor House (Taylor County's homeless shelter). Pictured are Yolanda Montes, Prevail Bank -Medford Branch Manager presenting the items to Courtney Scholl, Steppings Stones Executive Director; Colleen Welker, Taylor House Director; and Jaime Johnson, Steppings Stones Victim Advocate. Other Prevail Bank branches that participated included Eau Claire, Marshfield, Wausau, and Wisconsin Rapids. Prevail Bank sincerely thanks those who donated to the cause. Prevail prides itself in making a difference in the communities it serves.
