Prevail Bank invests a total of $22,250 in innovation and growth through CREATE Portage County

(Stevens Point) Prevail Bank recently contributed $5,000 to CREATE Portage County, bringing the bank's total investment in the community development organization to $22,250.

CREATE uses the arts, entrepreneurship, and culture as vital components for bringing people together and growing local businesses, ultimately solidifying its role as a leader in community development, revitalizing Portage County, and building a vibrant inclusive community.

"We are proud to support CREATE Portage County," said Nathan Quinnell, CEO/President of Prevail

Bank. "We're a community bank that is passionate about economic development, and the financial stability, welfare, and growth of individuals, families, and businesses."

Prevail Bank's first investment in CREATE Portage County was in May 2020.
