DAVID JOHNS JOINS THE PREVAIL BANK MANAGEMENT TEAM

Prevail Bank is excited to announce that David Johns has recently joined the Eau Claire team as our new Chief Retail Officer. David brings with him 15 years of experience in the financial industry, along with an outstanding track record of customer service, leadership, and financial management.

“David John’s will be a great addition to the Prevail Bank team. His professional experience, energetic attitude, and excitement towards the Prevail Bank brand and vision make him a perfect fit for this new role. We are looking forward to new ideas he will bring to continue to help our customers Pursue what’s Possible,” states Nathan Quinnell, President of Prevail Bank.

David states, “What excited me the most about the opportunity to join Prevail Bank, was the chance to be a part of an organization that’s so invested in looking to the future of banking, and how that path can positively impact our customers, communities, and team members.”

In addition to his new role at the bank, David also serves throughout the Eau Claire community. He currently serves on the Eau Claire Special Olympics committee, has been involved in several Habitat for Humanity builds, volunteers at the Community Table, and works with the Hmong American Leadership & Economic Development program. In addition to his career and other professional activities, David enjoys spending time with his family, listening to podcasts, and anything that involves watching and playing sports.
