JUNIOR ACHIEVEMENT CLASSROOM KITS MADE POSSIBLE BY PREVAIL BANK CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS PROGRAM

Prevail Bank has recently donated $1,500 to Junior Achievement of Northcentral Wisconsin to help prepare local youth for the modern workforce, while placing an emphasis on financial literacy. With this donation, Prevail Bank is helping Junior Achievement in their mission to bridge the gap between traditional education and real-life economics.

Mari Stein, Senior Regional Director for Junior Achievement of Wisconsin, states, "Prevail Bank's generous contribution enhances and supports financial literacy education, work readiness, and entrepreneurial skills of local Marathon County students. Our mission of inspiring and preparing young people for success, even during economic uncertainty, has never been more relevant. Today, your financial support is paramount to ensuring the future success of students through Junior Achievement of Wisconsin programs."

Jarrold Spinnato, Wausau Prevail Bank Branch Manager states, "Junior Achievement's principles of financial management, with an emphasis on teaching skills needed to succeed in a global workforce truly align with Prevail Bank's mantra of helping people Pursue What's Possible. We look forward to a long and continued relationship through our charitable donations and volunteering our time and knowledge to help our youth become successful in life."

Prevail Bank's goal is to pursue what's possible within our local communities. Passionate about the advancement of community based projects, and supporting local organization growth; Prevail Bank is a community bank that is continuously working to support our community.

Prevail Bank's Charitable Contributions program is available for local non-profit organizations in the communities we serve to help local people in need and provide more to our communities. If your organization is interested in applying for funds for a major initiative in your community, review our Community Giving webpage.
