Prevail Bank Shred Event Helps Catkins Animal Rescue with $1,440 Donation

(Phillips) Turning paper into something powerful, Prevail Bank's Community Shred Day in Phillips raised $1,440 for Catkins Animal Rescue, an organization that helps animals in need throughout the Northwoods region.

Prevail Bank pledged to donate $1 for every pound of paper shredded, up to $1,000—and the community rose to the challenge, bringing in 2,800 pounds of documents to be safely destroyed and recycled. True to its pledge, Prevail Bank gifted $1,000; the public donated an additional $440. ($230 of the $440 was handed to Prevail to pass along.)

"This event was a win-win," said Retallick. "We helped people protect their personal information while supporting a cause that makes a real difference right here in our community."

This year, Prevail Bank's nine Community Shred Day events collected and shredded nearly 9 tons of paper, resulting in $11,387 in donations to nine nonprofits.

Prevail Bank continues to seek meaningful ways to give back and strengthen the communities it serves. From fundraising events to volunteer efforts, the bank remains committed to making central Wisconsin a better place to live, work, and thrive.
