Free Community Shred Day at Prevail Bank – Eau Claire, May 16

(Eau Claire, WI) – Prevail Bank invites the community to safely dispose of their confidential documents during its Free Community Shred Day on Friday, May 16, from 10 AM to 2 PM at the Eau Claire branch (2225 Fairfax Street).

Shredding your documents protects your personal information from fraud. Plus, for every pound of paper shredded, Prevail Bank will donate $1 (up to $1,000) to the YMCA of the Chippewa Valley's summer camp scholarship program.

Can't make it to Prevail Bank in Eau Claire? Join us at one of our other Community Shred Days:

- May 13 (10 AM–2 PM) – Baraboo – People Helping People /Adopt a Veteran Program
- May 15 (10 AM–2 PM) – Wausau – Humane Society of Marathon County
- May 16 (10 AM–2 PM) – Medford – Operation Horses Heal
- May 16 (10 AM–2 PM) – Eau Claire – YMCA of the Chippewa Valley /Youth Summer Camps
- May 20 (10 AM–2 PM) – Stevens Point – CAP Services
- May 20 (1 PM–4 PM) – Phillips – Catkins Animal Rescue

A $5 donation per box is suggested for more than three boxes of paper. Donations for the local nonprofits chosen by the Branches (listed above) can be made before or during each event.

For more information on credit monitoring and identity theft protection, contact your local Prevail Bank banker.

Prevail Bank, founded in 1934, is a community-focused bank with branches across central Wisconsin, dedicated to giving back to the communities it serves and supporting local dreams.
