Free Community Shred Day at Prevail Bank – Stevens Point, May 20

(Stevens Point, WI) – Prevail Bank invites the community to safely dispose of their confidential documents during its Free Community Shred Day on Tuesday, May 20, from 10 AM to 2 PM at its Stevens Point branch (5709 Windy Drive, Suite A).

Shredding your documents protects your personal information from fraud. Plus, for every pound of paper shredded, Prevail Bank will donate $1 (up to $1,000) to CAP Services, an organization dedicated to fighting poverty and supporting people in their attainment of economic and emotional self-sufficiency.

Can't make it to Prevail Bank in Stevens Point? Join us at one of our other Community Shred Days:

- May 15 (10 AM–2 PM) – Wausau – Humane Society of Marathon County
- May 16 (10 AM–2 PM) – Medford – Operation Horses Heal
- May 16 (10 AM–2 PM) – Eau Claire – YMCA of the Chippewa Valley /Youth Summer Camps
- May 20 (10 AM–2 PM) – Stevens Point – CAP Services
- May 20 (1 PM–4 PM) – Phillips – Catkins Animal Rescue

A $5 donation per box is suggested for more than three boxes of paper. Donations for the local nonprofits chosen by the Branches (listed above) can be made before or during each event.

For more information on credit monitoring and identity theft protection, contact your local Prevail Bank banker.

Prevail Bank, founded in 1934, is a community-focused bank with branches across central Wisconsin, dedicated to giving back to the communities it serves and supporting local dreams.
