Free E-Cycling Day in Stevens Point – July 23

(Stevens Point, WI) – Prevail Bank invites the community to safely dispose of their obsolete electronics during its Free Community E-Cycling Day on Thursday, July 23, from 11 AM to 1 PM at its Stevens Point branch (5709 Windy Drive, Suite A).

Bring your personal household electronics to be disposed of by First Choice, a non-landfill company, that is R2v3 and NAID, AAA certified. All data will be destroyed by First Choice at its secure facility.

Items accepted at no charge include: CRT TV/monitors, LCD TV/monitors, printers, laptops, desktops, phones, tablets, keyboards, speakers, hard drives, VCR/DVD players, cameras, radios, docking stations, cords, and cables.

Not accepted are: bulbs, batteries, appliances, freon appliances, air conditioners, dehumidifiers, hazardous waste, scrap metal, and electronics from businesses.

Other upcoming E-Cycling events, held at Prevail Bank locations, are: ♦ July 21 in Medford ♦ July 22 in Marshfield ♦ July 23 in Stevens Point ♦ September 2 in Baraboo — all from 11 AM to 1 PM.

Prevail Bank is a community bank that is continuously looking for ways to give back, support those pursuing dreams, and make things better in central Wisconsin.
